Required Equipment: Enough water for all day. Raingear is always a good idea. Cellphone.

Recommended Equipment: Snacks, lunch, hat, sunglasses, sunblock, trekking poles, sunblock, camera, first aid kit, two way radio set to channel 6.0. 3 quarts water.

Cautions and Special Preparations: Should be in good enough shape to hike Camelback without any problems. Possible afternoon thunderstorms.

Description: Everyone is welcome to come and walk through the beautiful groves of aspens and coniferous trees. Hopefully aspen tree leaves will be changing.

Option - Go only as far as you desire and then turn around, letting Leader know.

This is a rolling out and back trail with gradual ups and downs.

You will pass by basalt cliffs at 1.5 miles and also have scenic views at some points of the trail. Friedein Prairie is reached just beyond 4 miles. This is a beautiful meadow area with views toward the high mountains. Go another 2 miles on the Kachina Trail to the Weatherford Trail. Turn around and return the way we came.

Driving Directions:: Drive 7 miles northwest of Flagstaff on US 180 and turn north (right) on the Snowbowl Road (FR516). Follow this paved road about 7 miles to the Snowbowl Ski Area. Drive into the first parking lot on the right (south). The Kachina trailhead is located at the south end of the parking lot.
